

A Day in the Life of Downtown Dutchtown

24 HR Community
Photo Contest
June 21st

First Place $300 2nd Place $200 3rd Place $100

Pick up contest guidelines and forms at www.dt2stl.org, at any Downtown Dutchtown Member Business or at these locations:

National City— 4131 S. Grand, 63118
Iron Barley— 5510 Virginia, 63111

Giuseppe's— 4141 S. Grand, 63118
Original Crusoe's—3152 Osceola, 63111

The contest is designed to promote a positive image of Downtown Dutchtown, generate civic pride and bring awareness of our neighborhood to the St. Louis Community.

Winners from every hour of the day, plus the top three overall winners will be published in a book, recognized on DT2stl.org in a digital album, and at a special exhibit after the event.

Who: Open to all - All ages, All skill levels

When: June 21, 2006, 12:00 AM—11:59 PM

Where: Photos must be taken between Chippewa to Bates, Broadway to Grand

Why: To capture the essence of living, working and playing in Downtown Dutchtown

How Much: FREE! No pre-registration & no entry fees

Sponsored by

Special thanks to our distinguished panel of judges: Larry Coyne, St Louis Post Dispatch, Keith Fenter, Keith Fenter Design, William Greenblatt, United Press International, Jim Merkel, Suburban Journal, Jacqueline Moran, Australian Documentary Photographer, Patrick Renschen, Washington University Fine Arts, Stan Trampe, Fine Arts Photographer.

National City

